

Eva Visscher-Simon
Education Program Director

Eva has a long history working in academia in both the public and private sector. Previously a Program Manager for the University of Amsterdam Summer Institute, she's currently a Senior Program Consultant for Lam Research, UC Berkeley Haas School of Business, and smaller startups.

Eva is a proud graduate from Mount Holyoke College and pursued her LL.M. degree (Master of Laws) in Public International Law at Utrecht University with a focus on human rights and corporate social responsibility.